

The Droxford Curriculum for Learning

What are we trying to achieve?

Curriculum Aim

The curriculum aims to enable all children to become successful learners, confident individuals and responsible young people

Aim

Successful learners who make progress and achieve

Confident individuals who lead safe and healthy lives

Responsible young people - who make a positive contribution to society

Five outcomes

Enjoy and achieve Safe Healthy Participate Economic well being Developing individuals...

To have To know and understand To be

Essential Skills for Learning and Life Big Ideas that shape and connect the world Motivated Learners

Relevant curriculum

How to organise learning?

Components

Lessons Bases Events Environment Routines Enrichment Out of school

Learning Approaches

High expectations – Challenging and enjoyable learning – Active learning pathways – ICT – Assessment for Learning - Learning within and beyond school

Areas of Learning

English and languages – Mathematics – Science and technology – History and geography – Arts – Physical development, health and well-being

Subjects

Eng Ma Sci Comp D&T Hist Geo A&D Music PE Fr Cit PSHE RE

How well are we achieving our aim?

Assessment

Assessment for learning

Positive relationships Clear learning objectives shared with pupils Understood, success criteria Celebrate success Quality oral and written feed back Peer and self assessment Formative and summative Testing Target setting

Outstanding

 To make learning and teaching more effective so that learners make great progress ***

To secure...

High attainment and improved standards Good behaviour and attendance Citizenship Healthy Lifestyle Choices Great progress