

Parents evening – Autumn 2016

End of year expectations for children in Year 5

Reading

- Summarise main points of an argument or discussion within their reading and make up own mind about issue/s.
- Compare between two texts
- Appreciate that people use bias in persuasive writing.
- Appreciate how two people may have a different view on the same event.
- Draw inferences and justify with evidence from the text.
- Vary voice for direct or indirect speech.
- Recognise clauses within sentences.
- Explain how and why a writer has used clauses to add information to a sentence.
- Use more than one source when carrying out research.
- Create a set of notes to summarise what has been read.

Children understand a range of stories, poetry and non-fiction texts. They can discuss significant ideas, themes, events and characters with reference to the text. They identify key language and structural features of a range of texts. They are beginning to understand choices made by authors and the intended audience of the text. Comprehension skills taught in years 3 and 4 are now applied to more complex texts.

Writing

- Add phrases to make sentences more precise and detailed.
- Use range of sentence openers – judging the impact or effect needed.
- Begin to adapt sentence structure to text type.
- Use pronouns to avoid repetition.
- Indicate degrees of possibility using adverbs (e.g. perhaps, surely) or modal verbs (e.g. might, should, will).
- Use the following to indicate parenthesis:
  - brackets
  - dashes
  - comma
- Use commas to clarify meaning or avoid ambiguity.
- Link clauses in sentences using a range of subordinating and coordinating conjunctions.
- Use verb phrases to create subtle differences (e.g. she began to run).
- Consistently organise into paragraphs.
- Link ideas across paragraphs using adverbials of time (e.g. later), place (e.g. nearby) and number (e.g. secondly).
- Write legibly, fluently and with increasing speed.

Writing communicates clear meaning in a number of genres, showing an understanding of audience and purpose. Viewpoint is established and generally maintained. Writing is organised appropriately for the text type and paragraphs are used correctly. Words are chosen for effect and technical language is beginning to be used correctly. Sentence structure is varied, grammatically sound and nearly all punctuation is correct. Children can usually propose and make changes to vocabulary, grammar and punctuation. Most spellings are correct and handwriting is clear and legible.
